

Your help can make a difference in the work to restore the lower reaches of the Selwyn/Waikirikiriri, which flows into Te Waihora/Lake Ellesmere.

Join us to help with the planting of 3000 native plants at these community planting days. Planting is one tool which can help restore environmental and recreational values in and around waterways.

CHAMBERLAINS FORD planting day

Friday 1 October

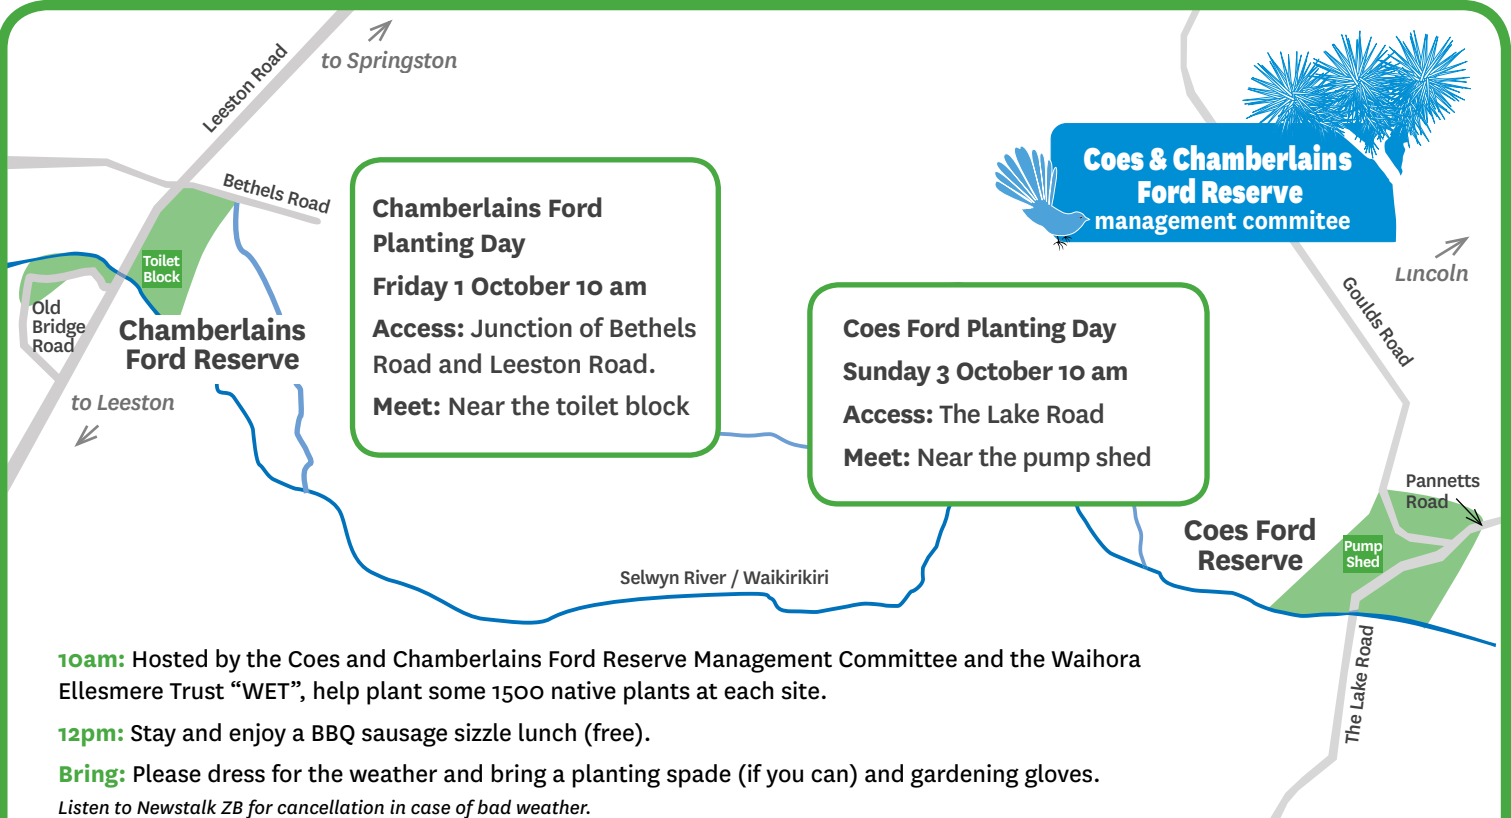

From 10 am-12 pm
Followed with a BBQ

COES FORD planting day

Sunday 3 October

From 10 am-12 pm
Followed with a BBQ

Chamberlains Ford Planting Day
Friday 1 October 10 am
Access: Junction of Bethels Road and Leeston Road.
Meet: Near the toilet block

Coes Ford Planting Day
Sunday 3 October 10 am
Access: The Lake Road
Meet: Near the pump shed

Coes & Chamberlains Ford Reserve management committee

10am: Hosted by the Coes and Chamberlains Ford Reserve Management Committee and the Waihora Ellesmere Trust “WET”, help plant some 1500 native plants at each site.

12pm: Stay and enjoy a BBQ sausage sizzle lunch (free).

Bring: Please dress for the weather and bring a planting spade (if you can) and gardening gloves.

Listen to Newstalk ZB for cancellation in case of bad weather.

For further information, contact Jason Arnold at:
 jasandkate@scorch.co.nz

