

A CELEBRATION OF RIVERS

"September in the Styx"

special event

The Barn, Willowbank Wildlife Reserve *
60 Hussey Road, Northwood, Christchurch

Saturday 15 September 2012

Programme:

- 12.30pm BBQ, displays by environmental river groups, demonstrations of monitoring activities
- 1.30pm Annual General Meeting of the Styx Living Laboratory Trust
- 2.00pm Christine McClure, Styx Summer Scholarship winner, will report on her research topic "Effectiveness of a predator-proof fence for conserving lizard fauna in the Styx Catchment"
- 2.20pm Michael Willis, Director of Willowbank Wildlife Reserve, will speak about "Paradoxes of conservation"
- 3.00pm For Volunteers (and interested people) - Progress to Styx Mill Conservation Reserve for scheduled Water Quality and Springs monitoring rounds

* Normal entry fee to Reserve applies

