

CANTERBURY

PLANTOUT TOUR

Sunday 7 April 2013

Come and explore some restoration sites and learn about biodiversity

10am: Logan Greendot

Welcome: Craig Pauling & Malcolm Lyall
(Te Ara Kakariki)

Native plants, getting the mix right: Colin Meurk (Landcare Research)

Restoration at any age: Tim Logan (Owner)

Morning tea provided

11am Coalgate Reserve

Invertebrate, what role do they play:

Mike Bowie (Lincoln University)

Community approach, one section at a time: Coalgate Reserve Committee

12.30pm Taege's Property

The importance of Birds: Frances Schmechel (Environment Canterbury)

The importance of preparation and maintenance: Trevor Taege (Owner)

A free BBQ Lunch provided at the Taege's property thanks to the Isaac Conservation and Wildlife Trust

Tour finishes 2pm

Thanks to our supporters

Whakaora Te Waihora

The Isaac Conservation & Wildlife Trust

Come for the whole tour or to one site

In the case of bad weather, the tour will be postponed for two weeks, listen to Newstalk ZB (1098AM, 100.1FM) for cancellation

RSVP: Thursday 4th April, to assist with catering or if you are interested in car pooling with others

TAK Coordinator: tel 0210 293 3003 or register@kakariki.org.nz

What you need to bring:

- Sturdy shoes or gumboots
- Hat and sunscreen
- something to drink
- suitable clothing for changing weather

CANTERBURY PLANTOUT TOUR

Sunday 7 April 2013

Logan property
506 West Melton Rd

Coalgate Reserve
End Selwyn st through gate, park in paddock

Taeye Property
Pass through springfield turn right onto pooch rd, take first left and follow signs to waimak jets (end of Rubicon Road)

TAK Coordinator:
tel 0210 293 3003
register@kakariki.org.nz

www.kakariki.org.nz