

LIVING LAKE SYMPOSIUM

Te Waihora/Lake Ellesmere 2013 - measure to manage

November 7 & 8, 2013, Lincoln University

Day 1, Thursday 7 November

8am – Registrations open

9am – Welcome

Keynote address – Dr Clive Howard-Williams from NIWA

Measure to manage

A series of short presentations will be given on biophysical, cultural, social and economic aspects of the Te Waihora/Lake Ellesmere catchment.

Evening - Symposium planting & BBQ

5pm – Planting a wetland – Ngāi Tahu & DOC invite you to the Waikirikiri/Selwyn River. Come along and make a difference! Celebrate actions underway and hear about the plants and wildlife of the lake and lake margin – includes BBQ dinner.

Day 2, Friday November 8

9am – Keynote address – Andy Bruere and Tai Eru from Environment Bay of Plenty will talk about the lessons learned from the Rotorua Lakes.

Managing what we measure

What is happening now? A series of short presentations highlighting actions already underway

Research

What investigations are currently underway to increase our understanding of this dynamic environment?

3pm – Drinks, nibbles and networking!

See below

Friday 3pm - We invite you to stay on to enjoy some hospitality, help us to celebrate 10 years of Waihora Ellesmere Trust and enjoy the work on display in the 'Expressions of a Living Lake' Art Exhibition.

A more detailed programme is available at www.wet.org.nz.
